

Indicative Grade 10

Typical roles: Faculty Tutor, Director

Experiences

Activities and responsibilities likely to be required when working at this level

Setting out, and delivering against, a strategic vision; broad subject knowledge with a practical understanding of how to apply it to different sectors; experience of leading a substantial team, often through change; managing complex, and often new solutions which take into account strategic implications within UCL; managing budgets to deliver value; exercising sound judgment and appropriate decision-making.

Personal and professional development

Development options to consider when working towards this level

On the job learning

Engagement in a major project (draft); leading a major project; initiating new and creative ideas resulting in successful implementation; seek out and credibly represent UCL in presenting to large groups.

Learning from others

Engagement in a major project (draft); leading a major project; initiating new and creative ideas resulting in successful implementation; seek out and credibly represent UCL in presenting to large groups.

Formal learning

Leadership/management training.

UCL Ways of Working