

University College London

SURVEY OF ENGLISH USAGE

Annual Report 1965-6

I FINANCE

[REDACTED TABLE]

OSTI (transferred from DSIR)	£2000
Department of Education and Science (not claimed in toto)	£2000
Longmans Green (sixth instalment)	£2000
Cambridge University Press (fifth instalment)	£250
	£6250

[REDACTED TABLE]

£1000, capital expenditure on a Flexowriter necessitated unevenly spreading the OSTI grant. Our financial position in fact becomes critical as, with the Cambridge University Press grant, 1965 embark on the last year of the OSTI, DES, and Longmans grants.

IN GENERAL

From 1 January 1966, Miss Valerie Adams joined the staff as Research Assistant in place of Mrs Judith Carvell; happily, Mrs Carvell has continued to make a valuable contribution to the Survey on a part-time basis. In earned the rare distinction of the highest grade report ("Berömlig"). Another former colleague, Mr David Crystal, now of Reading University, continues to maintain close links with us and is engaged on a book on style, based on Survey materials, in collaboration with Mr Derek Davy.

Visitors who spent some time working in the Survey

Professor S.B. Greenfield (Oregon), and Miss Janice Williams of the University College of N. Wales and the Compiler's usefulness for our purposes and has devised a computer grammar of Nominal Group structures. Largely

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

-- 'Acceptability in Language', Proceedings of the University of Newcastle Philosophical Society (at press).

and D. Crystal, On Scales of Centred Connected English Speech

[REDACTED]

h Verb, The Hague

(Mouton: Janua Linguarum) 1966

the English age Series was launched, quickly establishing itself as a promising medium of publication in the field of English usage. In Memory of J. R. Firth (Longmans 1966) pp. 59-69.

and J. Svartvik, Investigating Linguistic Acceptability, The Hague (Mouton: Janua Linguarum) 1966.

J. Svartvik, Voice in the i

RANDOLPH QUIRK

In addition, (Longmans)