

includes information which may not explicitly identify you (e.g. where your name has been

When we collect personal information from a participant directly, a Participant Information Sheet and/or Privacy Notice will inform the participant about what information we are using and how we are going to use it. We often ask participants for their informed consent to use of their personal data for the purpose of the research study when we contact them directly.

Researchers

assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services on the basis of Union or Member State law or pursuant to contract with a health professional and subject to the conditions and safeguards”.

8. Who will my personal information be shared with?

Your information is likely to be shared within the project team, primarily in a way that we can identify you as a participant, however most personal information used in research will be pseudonymised before sharing more widely or publishing the research outcomes. It may sometimes be necessary to share your personal information with other researchers for the purpose of achieving the research outcomes. If this is relevant to the research you are involved with, you will be provided with information about this in your Participant Information Sheet. If you have any further questions about research collaborations please contact the research team you are involved with.

If we are working with other organisations and information is shared with them, we will inform you in the Participant Information Sheet. Information shared will be on a need to know basis, not excessive and with all appropriate safeguards in place to ensure the security of your information.

We also sometimes use products or services provided by third parties who carry out a task on our behalf or used for sharing research data for collaboration. These third parties are known as data processors and when we use them we have contractual terms, policies and procedures to ensure confidentiality is respected. This does not always mean that they access your information. The University remains responsible for your personal information as the controller and should researchers use another third party service to process personal your information they will provide you with details about the relationship they have with the service provider / supplier/collaborator on the Participant Information Sheet.

Your personal information will only be used for the purpose of health and care research, and cannot be used to contact you or to affect your care. It will not be used to make decisions

It is important to understand that the extent to which these rights apply to research will vary and that in some circumstances rights may be restricted. If it is considered necessary to refuse to comply with any of your individual rights, you will be informed of the decision within

(